OCT. 25: UD TO HOST LEADERSHIP NETWORK FORUM

The University of Dayton's Strategies for Responsible Development will host a forum for alumni of the Neighborhood Leadership Institute, the Black Leadership Development Program and the Leadership Dayton Program from 6 to 8 p.m. Friday, Oct. 25, in Miriam Hall Room 121 on campus.

Approximately 750 invited alumni will listen to three local Community Development Corporation leaders discuss their work in attempting to revitalize inner city neighborhoods in the Dayton community. The goal is to have alumni understand the possibilities for local growth and economic development and also to encourage involvement.

For more information, call Dean Lovelace at (513) 229-4641.

OCT 26: CITYLINKS CONFERENCE TO BE HELD AT UD

Miami Valley residents will learn how to encourage economic development in their neighborhoods and communities at Citylinks '91, a conference to be held from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 26, at the University of Dayton.

Conference participants will register between 8 and 9 a.m. on the first floor of Miriam Hall. The keynote address of "Putting the Community in Economic Development" will be presented by Daniel Russell III, senior trainer from the Development Training Institute Inc. of Baltimore, Md., from 9:15 to 10 a.m. in the Kennedy Union Barrett Dining Room. Participants will then attend two workshop sessions from 10:15 to 11:30 a.m. and 11:45 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. in Miriam Hall. Workshop topics include using resources available at UD, developing strategic neighborhood development plans and managing finances for non-profit organizations.

Lunch will be from 1 to 2 p.m. in Kennedy Union, followed by a "break out" session from 2:15 to 3 p.m. during which participants will meet workshop coordinators and ask more questions. Citylinks '91 will close with a social hour from 3 to 4 p.m. in the Kennedy Union Torch Lounge.

Citylinks '91 is sponsored by UD's Strategies for Responsible Development office and Neighbor to Neighbor Inc. For more information, call (513) 229-4641.
